

CENTENNIAL FETE WILL BE AN ALL-DIXON AFFAIR

ILLINOIS C. C. AIR FLEET IS GREETED HERE

Fliers Praised Dixon Airport In Short Stop Wednesday

"This is the largest reception in point of attendance as well as in enthusiasm, and this is by far the finest airport that we have yet visited," declared M. C. Meigs, flight commander of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce second annual state tour, upon his stepping from the big Ford tri-motored Stinson, flag ship of the fleet, at the Dixon Airport yesterday afternoon. "This is three times the number that were present to welcome us when we landed at Rockford this morning," he added.

The fleet of 15 planes ranging from small two-seater types to the big Sikorsky amphibian belonging to Charles R. Walgreen and the two monster all-metal Ford tri-motored ships, landed on schedule at 2 o'clock and took off to resume their tour at 3 o'clock after a rousing reception. M. C. Several other ships from northern Illinois cities flew to Dixon to be present at the reception of the state wide tour and others arrived while the impromptu program was under way and followed the ships from the field on their tour to Moline, there being 25 planes on the field at one time, the largest fleet that has ever landed at the new Dixon airport.

The large numbers which constituted a most orderly and interested crowd of spectators, were invited and welcome to inspect any of the ships and to climb in to the cabins for closer inspection of the fine modern aircraft. After ample time had been allowed for the inspection and refueling of the fleet, the brief program took place.

Mayor Frank D. Palmer welcomed the tour in a brief but very appropriate address in which he said:

Mayor's Welcome.

"The citizens of Dixon and community today welcome this second annual air tour of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce. Two years ago we welcomed you and we are present in larger numbers and under much more convenient circumstances today to again extend that hearty Dixon welcome."

"It is peculiarly fitting that this fine Dixon airport, situated as it is on the transcontinental airway, links the greatest air route in our nation. Likewise, it is situated on the Lincoln Highway, the nation's greatest and longest highway. Along this highway, the Prairie President at one time rode for several miles. The city of Dixon presents to the auto traveler and the air traveler, a city not as large as many on the transcontinental airway and on the Lincoln Highway, but a city rich in natural beauty and historic interest. We welcome these tourists of the air to Dixon on this second annual state wide tour. We want you to come again and bring your families and visit our city."

Mr. Meigs responded to Mayor Palmer's address:

On "Seeing Tour."

"This is not a speaking tour, but a seeing tour," he said. "The fleet of ships which you have seen land here this afternoon and which you are invited to inspect, represent an investment of approximately $250,000, ranging in price from the lowest at $1,900 to the highest, at $60,000. The purpose of this flight is at least three (Continued on page 2).

Blacksmiths, clad in leather aprons, will play upon actual anvils, wired with electricity so that the sparks fly when they are struck, during the rendition of the Anvil Chorus by a band of 80 pieces.

Guns of the field artillery will fire several volleys over Lake Michigan during the stirring overture of 1812.

As a final number on the program of the broadcast all the bands, choruses and the audience, which will probably number 100,000 persons, will join in playing and singing the national anthem.

The instrument will dispose of an estate estimated at from $15,000,000 to $40,000,000, it is believed. Mr. Black, publisher of the Baltimore Sun and Evening Sun, was known as the wealthiest man in Maryland.

Following the hearing at New York today before federal steamboat inspectors, Captain John J. Kelley planned to return to Baltimore in the yacht, the Sabalo. He planned to make another search for the body near the position of the yacht, about 12 miles off the New Jersey coast, when Mr. Black disappeared.

Captain Kelley and the publisher's associates here believe he fell accidentally from the yacht's rail, where he had been accustomed to sit, despite warnings that the position was dangerous.

SECOND LABOR UNION OFFICER DIES OF WOUNDS

Mysterious Shooting In Chicago Takes Lives Of Two Union Men

Chicago, Aug. 21.—(UP)—Bernard Ruberry, 35, died today, the second victim of a mysterious gun battle which police said resulted from plumber's union troubles.

Ruberry was wounded yesterday afternoon when he and Charles Mulcahy, 44, nationally known labor leader, went to the site of the new Lane high school. Mulcahy was killed instantly by the same men who shot Ruberry and escaped.

Police were seeking Charles Arthur Stein, son of the head of a plumbing contracting company, and Charles Courchene, superintendent of the company, in connection with the shooting.

Carl John Stein, president of the Stein Company, told the officers that Mulcahy visited him shortly before the shooting and demanded that Courchene be discharged. This Stein said he refused to do.

Seek to Blame Papers

Attorney Arthur Albert, who represents the Journeymen Plumbers' Union, for which Mulcahy is business agent, told the United Press he would bring charges that Mulcahy was killed because newspapers had led his slayers to believe he was associated with gangsters.

"We will attempt to show that Mulcahy's death was due directly to the newspaper stories," said Albert. "We will contend that the men who shot him had read these stories, formed a false impression of him and misunderstood his motive when he went to see them on a peaceful mission."

Albert said Ruberry told him before he died that Mulcahy and he had gone to the big new high school, under construction, to investigate reports some of the contracts were excessively high.

Charles Kahmer, a plumber who was working at the school, told police Mulcahy and Ruberry drove up in a large automobile, asked him how long he had been on the job, asked who was in charge, walked to a tool shanty and that a few minutes later he heard shots. Mulcahy was killed instantly and Ruberry shot through the stomach.

Police said early today they believed Stein and Courchene would appear at the inquests into Mulcahy's and Ruberry's deaths, arranging in the meantime for bond and legal services.

Last year two bandits attacked the bartender. They tortured him, beat him with clubs and burned him

RECORDS SECOND BRANCH OF ZUTA FACTION SEIZED

Authorities Withhold Information Obtained In Their Raid

Chicago, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The records of a second branch of the Zuta-Aiello-Moran gang faction were seized last night by investigators attempting to solve the slaying of Jake Lingle, Tribune reporter.

Acting on information they obtained in one of Jack Zuta's safe deposit boxes, State's Attorney's agents raided the luxurious apartment of Joe Aiello, head of the Unione Siciliano, and his brother, Dominick. They found a mass of records, several weapons and about 100 keys.

Whether the papers contained any mention of financial transactions with public officials such as was found in the records kept by the slain Zuta was not revealed by the State's Attorney's office. The Aiello records were being studied carefully. It was announced, and an effort was being made to trace additional papers through the keys found in the brothers' apartments.

Neither of the Aiellos was at home when the investigators arrived. Their wives, who protested loudly against the search, said the notorious brothers left the city soon after Lingle was killed more than two months ago.

Police have always considered the gang headed by George "Bugs" Moran responsible for the shooting of Lingle, with Zuta, the brains of the Moran gang, as the probable plotter.

Eight Women Stand Chance Of Winning

Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 21.—(AP)—Eight players stood today within striking distance of the National Women's tennis singles crown which only one can win.

This group, comprising survivors of a field of 57, was made up of three California players, one each from the south, middle west and east and two from foreign countries.

Betty Nuthall, 19-year-old English star, still retained her place as perhaps the most logical contender for the title relinquished by Mrs. Helen Wills Moody. The sturdy English girl won a snappy 6-0, 6-3 victory over Edith, America's third ranking woman player, in the third round yesterday.

The other quarter-finalists were Ethel Burkhardt of San Francisco, Dorothy Weisel of Sacramento; Mary Grise, Kansas City; Marjory Morrill, Dedham, Mass.; Mrs. L. A. Harper, San Francisco; Penelope Anderson, Richmond, Va.; and Baroness Levi of Italy, formerly Maude Rosenbaum of Chicago.

Sarah Palfrey, 17-year-old Brookline, Mass., star was conspicuously absent from this list, having been eliminated by Miss Weisel yesterday after holding a lead of 4-1 in the final set.

The slight and slender Miss Weisel a newcomer to eastern courts this year, thus qualified to meet Miss Nuthall in the quarter-finals.

4,000 Communists Killed By Chinese

Hankow, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The slaughter of 4,000 Communists by provincial troops in Western Kiangsi province and the capture of 2,000 Red rifles were reported today in Chinese press dispatches.

This apparently is the first crushing defeat administered to the red "naraudeurs" who have been murdering, looting and burning throughout the Yangtze valley for several weeks.

News of the provincial victory followed closely word of the burning of Wusueh, Hupei province, by Communists who looted the city of 5,000 population and ransacked the countryside. Wusueh is an important Yangtze river port 25 miles above Kukiang, Kiangsi.

Communist armies late last month sacked and destroyed large sections of Changsha, Hunan province capital.

A Frenchman has invented a device to detect foreign noises in various parts of automobiles, registering their loudness in comparison with standard sounds to enable their causes to be remedied.

CELEBRATION PLANS MAKING FINE PROGRESS

Everyone Will Be Given Chance To Help Centennial Fete

With the celebration of Dixon's centennial just a month away—a celebration which will mark the culmination of 100 years of growth and progress and which will be featured by the dedications of the Peoria Avenue Memorial bridge, the Lincoln monument at the site of the old block fort where the Emancipator served as a soldier in the Blackhawk War, and the fine new Dixon Airport made possible through the generosity of Charles R. Walgreen—the committees are commencing to get their plans into shape for a monster three-day festival, which will attract hundreds of visitors, including many former residents who plan home-comings.

The finance committee reported today that it is meeting with good success in its campaign to raise the funds necessary for a fete of the magnitude planned, and in order that the affair may be an all-Dixon one, arrangements are being made to give everyone in the city a chance to contribute his bit toward this fund.

Statue Nearly Finished.

The state Lincoln Memorial commission, appointed by Gov. Emmerson to supervise the creation of the statue which will show Lincoln as a soldier, and which will be erected by the state on the state property at Water street and Hennepin avenue, the site of the old fort, has received assurance from the sculptor that it will be complete, erected and ready for dedication by the date set for the celebration. The statue is ready for casting in bronze. It is announced, and this detail will be completed within a week or so.

Everything is pointing to the coming celebration as the greatest in Dixon's history—a fitting observance of the 100th anniversary of the establishment of this community on beautiful Rock River.

Youth Admits He Killed Employer

Carson City, Mich., Aug. 21.—(AP)—State police and county officers held the confession of William H. Davis, 25, that he killed his former employer, Mrs. Doris Loree, 59-year-old, widow after forcing her to write two checks for a total of $300.

One of the checks—for $200—was cashed by him, Davis, admitted to Sheriff Francis M. Waldo and state police. The other was found in his possession, the officers said, when he was arrested as he turned to his home near here last night after an all-day visit to Grand Rapids.

The cashing of the check at a bank in the village of Fenwick late Tuesday afternoon, quickly put officers on his trail.

The prisoner told officers, they said, that he shot Mrs. Loree to prevent her stopping payment on the checks.

HEAD SOCIAL COL

"FLOWERS MADAME?"
"LOWERS" madame? These carry happiness.
My lilies of the valley; very smart.
To wear, madame! With soil-grimed, peasant hands.
She lifts a bunch from her bud-laden cart.
No, lovely, yes; but not today!"

"Flowers, madame? Forget-me-nots? This rose?
Or these grand garden lilacs? Deutzia?"
Cold thud of sabots and warm colors of stalls!
"No, not today!" Out towards the Opera,
I make my traffic-troubled way.

"Flowers, madame? (The window shows but few)
"Entrez! Such big carnations, freshly cut!"
"Flowers, madame?" If none would ask me that—
I, with my garden in Connecticut—
I, too, might find their Paris gay!
—Violet Allen Story.

Mrs. Hoover Great Friend Girl Scouting

Washington, Aug. 21—(AP)—Sincerely continuing to choose her own closest companions, Mrs. Herbert Hoover has coordinated personal interests and public life in a manner unique in White House history.
Ever since her arrival in the Executive Mansion, there have been, beneath its hospitable roof, one or more continuing women guests. These have been kindred spirits who come on call—and stay for weeks or months—helping Lou Henry Hoover be herself, as well as the wife of the President.

They have been principally from Palo Alto—Californians versed in out-of-door living. They have known their Girl Scout lore.
Two sons have Mrs. Hoover—but no daughters. For years her very genuine love for girls has found expression in sponsorship of the Girl Scout movement. She has actively engaged in the Girl Scout mode of living—hiking, horseback riding, exploring mountain trails. This she has been able to continue since her advent in the White House through cooperation of these chosen comrades of hers.

At present, Mrs. Dare Stark McMullin is the White House guest whose name is most in the news with Mrs. Hoover's. Expert at mountain auto-driving, she shares with Mrs. Hoover the adventures of actually having hands on the wheel in the long drives about the Rapidan camp. White House chauffeurs and Secret Service men usually trail in another car.

Throughout Girl Scoutdom, Dare Stark McMullin is known as Vaa Stark's sister—and sharer with Vaa Stark in the traditions of her most unusual girl camp at Chaparral, California.
Most of last winter, and far into the spring, Miss Susan Dyer, also of Palo Alto, was a guest at the White House. Miss Dyer is active as a Girl Scout Executive on the west coast.

A scouting background also added to the talents of Mrs. Jean Large, Mrs. Hoover's sister, as a White House guest. To Mrs. Large, now in California, the White House has been a sort of second home.

Live Wire 4-H Club Meeting

The Live Wire 4-H club met at the home of the Misses Esther and Evelyn Shippert, Monday, Aug. 18.

The meeting was called to order by the president and the roll answered by the eight members present. Having no old business, the club discussed taking their exhibits to the fair. It was decided to bring a "patch" and "darn" to the next meeting.

The business meeting then having been called to a close, a short program was given as follows:

Vocal Solo—Inez Herbert
Vocal Duet—Evelyn and Esther Shippert.
Piano Duet—Evelyn and Ethel Shippert.

The girls then gathered together their garments which are being taken to the Lee County Fair. The next meeting will be held at the home of the Misses Beth and Flavel Spangler.

Two Groups State Women To Meeting

Chicago, Aug. 21—(AP)—Two groups of Illinois women—one interested in inserting a wet plank in the party platform and the other determined to keep it dry—today moved to the Republican state convention at Springfield.

State Representative Lottie Holman O'Neil of Downers Grove, first Illinois woman legislator, will champion the cause of the dries at the rally. She has the support of Mrs. Ella Boole of Evanston, national President of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, and the state members of that organization who have been requested to wire their demands for maintenance of an unwavering stand on prohibition.

Mrs. Leslie Wheeler and Mrs. Clifford Rodman of the Chicago district, have been appointed to represent the Illinois Division of the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform at the convales. They will ask the endorsement of that society's policies, including demands for a national referendum on repeal of the 18th amendment and state control of liquor.

The one day session will be held tomorrow.

TRAINED SOCIAL WORKERS TOO FEW TO FILL DEMAND

New York—(AP)—There is an acute shortage of well-trained family social workers, says Ruth Hill, personnel director of the Family Welfare association.

Approximately 1,250 will be needed next year and 6,000 in the next four years, but the available supply is inadequate to fill the demand, Miss Hill says.

Social work is now a specialized profession, says Miss Hill, and the worker must be trained to deal with problems of physical and mental health, education, vocational training, legal aid, dietetics, and have ability to teach household or business management.

YOUR CHILDREN
by OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"Let me help, Mother."
"I'd rather do it myself."
"But I know how to make beds. I like to. Please let me try."
"Very well. Go and make Henry's bed. But get it nice and smooth. Aunt Annie will be here today and she notices things."
An hour later Lois called. "It's all done, mother. Come up and see how nice Henry's room looks."
"I'll be up in a minute."
But when her mother did appear in the door way it was to find fault. "Mercy child! That won't do! Look at the pillows! And the wrinkles in the spread. I told you you couldn't do it."
She tore up the bed and tramped and jerked and smoothed for awhile. Lois had to admit when her mother finished that it did look much better. I guess I don't know how to make beds," she said.
"No, I guess you don't."
But no attempt was made to teach her.
"I can fix up the bathroom,"
To Try, Try Again
"All right, you can do that. I'm in a hurry anyway. Get the powder and clean out the bathtub and bowl and you'd better get a bucket and wash up the floor. Put out clean towels and tie back the shower curtain if it's dry."
An hour later she came upstairs. Lois was still at the bathroom.
"Goodness, what a little slow poke! Here, give me that scrubbing brush and clear out. It takes you all day to do things."
Lois' eyes filled with tears. She had been feeling very happy over the lovely job she was making of the bathroom.
She went downstairs and had her cry out by herself.
Presently she came up again. "I guess I'll make Lillian a new dress. Have you any patches?"
"Look in the rag bag. Don't touch the silks in my box, though."
"There's nothing but old pieces of flannel and worn-out under-wear and old dust cloths in the rag bag."

Have You Heard?

If you believe in preparedness, there is an able autumn helper on the market in the form of a wire basket that holds securely all the fallen leaves heaped into it.

It is made to fit onto a wheelbarrow and saves time and temper by making sure leaves once raked up will not have to be raked up again, if a good stiff autumn breeze blows up just as you start toward the bonfire with your load.

Resort Modes Show Tendency Toward Extreme in Styles

New York, Aug. 16—(UP)—One of the most interesting phases of the current style mood which turns to tailored simplicity on the one hand and elaborated variety on the other, is revealed in the hats worn. This is apparent both in town and at the resorts, and brings us to another phase of the double style life which women may elect in the scheduling of their clothes program.

That a simple tailored theme in millinery still has many sponsors is reflected in the popular success of the Panama type, with its new wider brim and simple ribbon band, although it may be selected in other

PICTURES USED AS COLOR KEYNOTE OF THE ROOMS

Nothing so enlivens a room, both in feeling and in color, as a spirited picture. Let's imagine the blue of the sea, great white cloud-drifts, and the glints of sun on the full-rigged ship scudding along. And suppose the davenport is covered with soft burnt-orange velour—and the rest of the room in harmonizing colors. Wouldn't anyone agree that it's the pictures which "make" the room?

Another very effective bit is seen in the grouping of mirror, small prints, table and flowers. The lamp, too, with its parchment shade, adds glow of color, especially when lighted in the evening, and reflected in the mirror. Pictures are used by many home furnishers of note as guides for the color harmonies of the entire room.

straws but is practically always in the natural tone or white. A similar preference is reflected in the stitched hats of taffeta, linen and pique which have widespread acceptance, and in the beret which is a uniform type as far as the younger generation is concerned. On the other hand, millinery has gone to the extremes in individuality. Even Paris comment makes the point that the extremes with which millinery is now involved lead to a diversity of styles.

Predict Return Grace, Beauty to Ballroom

New York, Aug. 21—(UP)—The jazz dance is doomed, according to Thomas M. Sheehy of Chicago, President of the Dancing Masters Association of America, now in annual convention here.

Addressing 700 dancing teachers from all sections of the country, Sheehy said the return of the long skirt to popularity has brought with it a plea for grace and dignity.

Middle-aged and elderly dance enthusiasts, Sheehy said, are tired of jerky, jazz steps and insists on "dances which do not make a jumping jack of a dignified broker."

"For the fast and furious type of dancing that was so popular a year or two ago," Sheehy said, "almost any kind of a girl would do. But for the waltz, a man must have a beautiful girl in his arms to fit his mood. It is a return of grace and dignity to the ballroom that is on the way."

"In Chicago the waltz already has made a substantial comeback. Waltz night at the Trianon, the city's great ballroom, attracts a huge crowd weekly. You can see 3,000 persons from 25 to 85 years old dancing the waltz and dancing it beautifully."

Long skirts, Sheehy maintained, do not lend themselves to the stamping sort of dances which formerly enjoyed favor. It is the waltz which "makes a modern girl look her best in a long dress."

THE RIGHTS OF CHILDREN.

Every boy has a right to a marble game in his own back yard. And every little girl is entitled to a crooked apple tree under which she may spread her dolls and chairs and dishes and play at keeping house.

But the heritage is being removed. Back yards are going. Freedom to romp and dream is giving way to the god of efficiency.

Approximately one-half of all living accommodations being provided by new construction in cities of the United States are apartments, it is indicated by the Labor Department's latest study of city building activity. Data for the year of 1919, just made public, show that 48.6 per cent of all families housed in new construction last year moved into the apartment type of dwelling. There was a corresponding decrease in "single" houses.

Apartments may be time and labor savers for adults. They may simplify the business of housekeeping but they complicate the duties of home-making, if there are children in the family.

Four walls are not enough for any child. His kingdom lies outside, where the sun shines and the wind blows and his gang waits. But if there is no yard where he may wander and be contented his vision is going to become as dwarfed as a body which does not know the outdoor world.

A child is happier and healthier, more in tune with life, when he watches the seeds push through the soil in his own garden; when he hears the birds that sing at morning in his own trees; when he has a rope swing from which he can look far into the tree-tops, and a sand pile to make bridges and dams or mud cakes.

A child who is reared in an apartment house has no room for pets. A dog would be in the way. He can't bring a stray puppy home from school to warm and feed it now and then. Rabbits are taboo.

He can't feel a sense of beauty stirring in his own strange little heart, just because the roses are pink and fragrant on the bushes and the sweet peas are beginning to grow. He doesn't even have a lawn to sprinkle, with the cool fine spray splashing his bare, tanned feet.

Little boys and girls have a thousand nerves to make them wiggle and not one to help them keep still. Apartment houses which boast of the living facilities which they can pack into a small amount of space, may be convenient for adults but plainly they were not intended for children. A red-blooded, strong-legged child certainly isn't going to be content to listen to the radio and read about others' adventures. He wants to go make some of his own.

There are other joys that he misses, too. A kitchenette hasn't much room for a cookie jar. It is too crowded for an eager-eyed little figure to sit on a stool and wait for the magic moment when he or she may lick the frosting bowl. Kitchenettes and frosting bowls have little in common.

An apartment doesn't have an attic where a boy or girl may slip away to read through a long afternoon, rain coming down with steady musical beat, shadows dancing in the corners.

An apartment doesn't instill a sense of pride in a child's breast, when a youngster sees yellow lamps in a little house and knows that it is his house. There isn't much fun in looking at big brick building and saying you belong some place "up there."

Apartment houses may be convenient for their parents but they are pretty hard on the kids.

PAYING FOR THE WAR.

A few years ago you heard quite a lot of talk about canceling the war debts owed Uncle Sam, but they weren't canceled. Europe is still paying for the war, and will continue for many years.

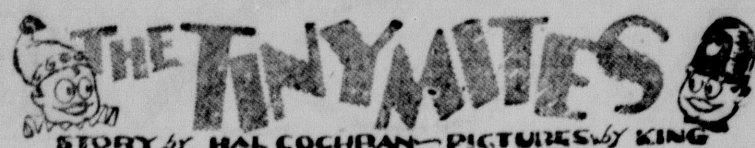

It is interesting to note that the semi-annual payments just made to the United States by foreign nations total $117,142,000. The greater part of this sum represents interest charges, $71,355,000. The rest, $45,787,000, was applied to reduction of the principal.

England paid $66,390,000, all of which was interest. France reduced her principal by $35,000,000. Italy paid $5,000,000 and Belgium $4,825,000. Smaller sums from Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Russia, Jugo-Slavia and the Baltic countries.

This money helps reduce our national debt. That, at least, is consoling to every taxpayer.

A New York man who stole a dollar watch the other day was sentenced from 20 to 40 years in prison. Had he taken a more expensive movement he might have been given a more correct time.

Just as the Noise Abatement Committee had solved its major problems, along comes announcement of the discovery of a new musical instrument which is a combination of the saxophone and bagpipe.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The olive pickers stopped to rest and Clowry very promptly guessed that he would like to climb a tree and do some picking too. "Right up the tree trunk I can crawl," said he. "I'm sure I will not fall. I'd like to have a picking race. I'll beat the rest of you."

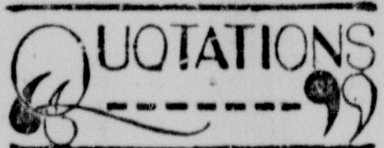

"Oh, no, you won't," wee Scouty cried. "You'll soon find out, when we have tried, that I am fairly good myself. Let's get permission now. And so they asked the men nearby and one said, 'Go ahead and try, but don't climb up the tree trunks. That's one thing we don't allow.'"

"Just use the ladders that are there and as you're climbing up, take care to keep a good safe footing so you won't slip to the ground. Don't have a race, but all of you just pick until you've picked a few. We'll gladly let you take our places while we're loafing 'round.'"

Each Tyny took a good sized pail and quickly ran right up to scale a clumsy looking ladder. They all found the picking fun. Said Coppy, "Gee, we will not stop till each pail's filled right to the top." And so they picked until that very thing 'had been done."

The olive folks thanked every lad. Said one, "We're surely very glad that you have helped us with our task. Come back again some day." "We will," said Scouty, "Gladiy, too!" And then more picking we will do." The Tynymites then yelled good bye and went upon their way.

Soon down a little winding road they met a lad who had a load upon his little shoulder. 'Twas a jug, and Clowry cried, "Oh, that lad is a water boy. He smiles and seems to quite enjoy the task of lugging that big jug. Fresh water is inside."

THE SLAVERY DEBATES

On August 21, 1858, Abraham Lincoln and his great political rival,

Stephen A. Douglas, began their series of memorable debates on the question of slavery in Ottawa, Ill.

Douglas, a Democrat, was recognized as one of the ablest men in his party and was styled the "little giant."

It was his contention that the federal government had no right to legislate on the matter of slavery in the territories.

In discussing this question with his opponent, Douglas gained sufficient fame to elect him to the United States Senate. At the same time Lincoln's admirable stand against slavery won for him a national reputation. Whatever hope Douglas had of becoming president was ruined because of a shift in his position during the debates. He was forced by Lincoln to make statements which undermined his popularity.

But after Lincoln was elected Douglas continued to exert a powerful influence and his hearty support of the Lincoln administration upon the outbreak of the Civil War was of powerful effect in the defense of the Union.

GOOD RACES AT OPENING DAY OF ANNUAL CO. FAIR.

Fair Sized Crowd Marked
Opening Of Show At
Amboy Grounds

A good crowd attended the opening day of the Lee county fair at Amboy yesterday afternoon and evening. Today, Dixon Day, was expected to set a new record for attendance as several places of business throughout the city closed at noon for the remainder of the day to permit both proprietors and employees to enjoy the afternoon and evening at the fair grounds. An exceptionally fine racing bill had been provided for today's track events.

Tomorrow will see the closing of the horse races, Saturday afternoon's racing to be devoted to automobiles. Never in the history of the Amboy track has there been such a large number of horses at the stables. Secretary Stuart Pettigrew announced today that almost 50 head of running horses had taken up quarters at the Amboy track to remain for the season. The running events of which two are on each day's card bear evidence of this, as there are from 12 to 15 starters in each event and among them can be found some very fine stock.

The track was in exceptionally fine condition yesterday for the first day of racing and some very fast time was recorded in both the trot and pacing events, the results of which were as follows:

2:34 Pace.
Sometime, J. Vickery, Ohio 1 1 2
Guy Direct, G. Hagen, Henry 2 2 1
Nilewood, C. Hines, Wapella 3 3 3
Katy Did, H. Gallup, Grand
Ridge 4 4 4
Harris H., Marie Peter, June
Direct, distanced.
Time of the mile 2:12 1/4; 2:11; 2:15 1/4;

Vera M., F. Meade, Amboy 4 2 1 1
Howard Azoff, H. Smith,
Princeton 1 4 2 2
Jennie Del Dean, H. Moriarity,
Aurora 2 1 3 3
Clowdie, Guy Purchase, Constaway
Also ran. Opal Azoff, distanced.
Time of the mile 2:14 1/4; 2:14;
2:14.

There were an even dozen anxious starters in the first running race of the afternoon which was over the half mile course and J. L. P. owned by H. Paris of Carthage with Fryrear up galloped in three lengths ahead of the field. Maalia and J. H. Hathaaway trailed in second and third position, the time being 31 seconds.

There were also an even dozen entries in the second running race over the three-quarter mile course. Flo Direct from the Thomas brothers stables at Quincy with Thomas in the saddle crossed the line ahead of the field with Mary Ruth and Jubal Early coming second and third in the slow time of 1:15 1/2.

The list of entries for Friday, the closing day of the horse racing events is as follows:

Howard Benson of Pontiac, Mich., took the professional clay target championship of North America. The veterans championship for those of 70 years and older went to F. D. Kelsey, 78, of East Aurora, N. Y.

Today's program consisted of events preliminary to the grand American handicap shoot tomorrow, the climax of the tournament.

Marietta, O.—(AP)—More than forty boatmen gathered here today for the third annual mid-east regatta. They represented Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, New Jersey, Florida, West Virginia and Ohio. They expect to make a determined bid for the Charles G. Dawes trophy won last year by George Martin South Bend, Ind.

There will be nine class events, including the Dawes cup race which will close the regatta Saturday.

The stadium was closed early in the summer, but was leased early this month to Sammy Wolf who promoted a show with Earl Mastro and Fidel La Barba as the main attraction.

Singer will meet Jimmy McLarnin in a non-title bout at Yankee Stadium, while Canzone will box Billy Petrolle, the "Fargo Express" on the Paddy Harmon benefit card in Chicago.

Washington—(UP)—George Jennings, youthful Chicago left-hander, and Ted Drewes, St. Louis veteran, both former holders of the title, were scheduled to meet today in the quarter finals of the national public parks tennis tournament.

Bob Considine and Dooly Mitchell, both of Washington, provided another high spot in today's singles program. In the other matches, Jack De Lara of Los Angeles, runnerup last year, met Thomas Markey of Indianapolis, while Arnold Simons of Louisville opposed Alex Kellies of Baltimore.

Three seeded players were eliminated yesterday. Kellies defeated Charles Lejeck of Chicago in five sets, Markey won easily from Bob Hall of Louisville, and Mitchell won from Monte Tiller, also of Louisville.

In the women's division, the singles semi-finals were to be played today. Doubles play was continued in both divisions.

Vandalia, O.—(AP)—Gus Payne of Cleveland has waived off with a lion's share of the honors in the grand American handicap trap shoot tournament for the second successive day.

Baseball Gossip

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
While the National League pennant race goes merrily on without getting very near to a decision, the Philadelphia fans are about ready to hear the news that the Athletics have clinched the American League title for another year.

It will require an amazing winning streak on the part of the Washington Senators or the New York Yankees combined with a wholly unexpected slump on the part of the A's to keep the world's champions from capturing another league flag. After yesterday's 10 to 6 victory over Detroit the Athletics had only 31 games left to play and a margin of 8 1/2 games over Washington. If Philadelphia dumps so far as to lose half of its remaining contests, ending up the season with 98 victories and 56 defeats, Washington must win 25 of its remaining 34 games to tie while the Yankees now ten games behind could lose only seven of 33 games.

The Senators continued their chase yesterday by trouncing the St. Louis Browns, 14 to 4, scoring a ten run burst in the fifth inning which went a long way toward avenging the indignities suffered in St. Louis. But Washington's 18 hit assault brought no gain while the Athletics were giving Bob Grove his usual backing. The other American League clubs and a day of scheduled idleness.

The leaders of the National League were joined in grief yesterday as all three succumbed to their rivals of lower rank in the standing. But Brooklyn was the only club which lost ground. The Robins moved into Cincinnati for a double header with the humble Reds, but Cincinnati pitching proved better than Brooklyn's in two close duels, both being decided by 2 to 1 scores.

The last-place Phillies evidently were destined to win their twelfth game with the champion Chicago Cubs although it required three days of effort to give them a 10 to 8 decision. The game, which started in an eleven inning tie in the second half of Saturday's double header, failed to come to a decision in a 16 inning second clash Tuesday, finally was played off yesterday and Phillie Phanatic was triumphant. Five four baggers played the important part in deciding the dispute although the Phillies gave away four runs in the first inning and were outlasted, 17-13.

A single homer and a wild pitch by Fred Fitzsimmons were about enough for the St. Louis Cardinals as they downed the New York Giants, 5 to 4. Pinch batsman George Fisher made a four base clout for three runs while the wild heave by the Giant pitcher allowed the tying run to score. Out of the pennant race, Pittsburgh gained a triumph of its own by snuffing out the Boston Braves, 5 to 0, and passing the 500 mark for the first time since June 4.

Enterprise Wins
Over Morgan Yacht
By SIDNEY WHIPPLE
United Press Staff Correspondent
Newport, R. I., Aug. 21—(UP)—With Enterprise, the Vanderbilt yacht having one impressive victory over the Morgan Syndicate's Westamoc to her credit, the four boats struggling for the honor of defending the America's Cup moved out to sea again today for the second of ten elimination contests.

As in yesterday's opening event, the race committee kept secret the course and which boats, racing in pairs, will sail against each other. It was believed probable that Enterprise would once more engage Westamoc, however, with Yankee and Whirlwind fighting it out together.

Whirlwind's forced withdrawal from yesterday's contest during the last five miles of sailing, due to an accident to her main sail, in no way affected the result of her contest with Yankee, which was far in advance when Whirlwind hauled away and signaled for a tow line.

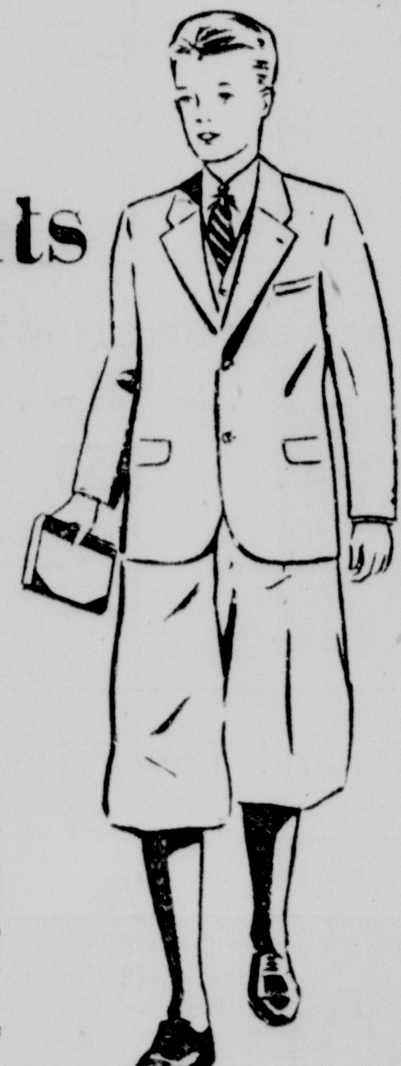

Whirlwind, however, is considered by most experts to have been eliminated already, unless she develops days trials.

STOLE TO GET EVEN
Vincennes, Ind.—(UP)—Appearing in city court, John Hollender, 24, a transient said he stole an automobile from the garage at the rear of the home of Dr. R. G. Moore to "get even" because he was refused in his request for food at the Moore home. He was sentenced to the state reformatory for one to 10 years.

UNUSUAL MISHAP QUARTER CENTURY AGO IS RECALLED

Elizabeth Residents Re- member of Men Falling In Mine There

Elizabeth, Ill.—Of the events of 25 years ago this season around Elizabeth a most unusual accident is recalled which took place in the late summer of 1905 when this community was more of a mining center and less of an agricultural strong hold than it is today. Two men fell 85 feet into a mine shaft due to a defective pulley and recovered according to the newspaper report of the accident which was as follows:

"A frightful accident occurred at one of the Elizabeth mines on Friday morning when James Richardson, son of C. W. Richardson, of near Stockton and Emil Gustavson, a Swede, fell 85 feet down a shaft. They stepped into a bucket to descend into the mine to begin their daily work when the machinery gave way and they plunged to the bottom. Some of their comrades hastened to the bottom of the shaft expecting to find both men dead. But, strange to say they still lived after their awful experience. They were lying helpless on the sandy bottom of the shaft, Richardson being conscious.

"Both were tenderly hoisted to the surface when physicians were summoned and promptly administered anaesthetics to relieve their suffering. Both men appeared to be seriously, if not fatally, injured though neither of them had any bones broken. Gustavson was badly bruised about the body, one shoulder being severely injured and serious internal injuries were suspected by the physicians.

"Richardson's serious injury was to his back. The spinal column was badly wrenched. When found it was bulged outward, the worst part being just below the shoulders, the vertebrae bulging the skin as though the spinal column was dislocated. The giving of a pulley in the tower over the mine caused the bucket to fall. People of this community who recall the accident of 25 years ago stated that while neither of the men live in this locality at present they both recovered from this strange and unusual accident.

DON'T LET GUMMY GASOLINE STEAL YOUR MILEAGE

USE

KOOLMOTOR GASOLINE

IT'S FREE FROM HARMFUL GUM

Here's another harmful effect of excessive gum in gasoline—fewer miles per gallon.

Inferior or carelessly refined gasolines contain excessive gum. This is deposited on your valves causing delayed seating and, in some cases, complete sticking of valves. Faulty valve operation allows unburned gasoline to blow out through the exhaust—unused and wasted!

Koolmotor Gasoline—the original high test, anti-knock green gas is free from harmful gum. It is powerful and clean burning—keeps your valves clean—allows them to function perfectly at all times.

A special process—the Cities Service mini-gum process—reduces the gum content in Koolmotor Gasoline to a harmless minimum.

Get more miles per gallon—power when you want it—perfect engine action every mile of the way by keeping your tank full of Koolmotor—the gas that is free from harmful gum.

GHOST OF MARIE AWAITS TRYST 26 YEARS OLD

Antiquated Letter Box
Gives Up Letters
Posted May, 1904

By JOHN WHITE
United Press Staff Correspondent
Paris—(UP)—At a cafe table near the Pantheon the ghost of a maiden named Marie patiently awaits a rendezvous made in May, 1904. For on May 10, 1904, Marie wrote a note to her boy friend and asked him to meet her where the Pantheon-Courcelles omnibus stopped. The boy friend never got the note, simply because Paris postmen haven't any reach.
Last week a butcher boy, ambling along on his delivery tricycle, almost ran into an elderly woman who was crossing the rue Gay-Lussac. Frightened, he swerved his "tricycle" swiftly on the sidewalk, wending his precarious way through the startled bystanders until he crashed headlong into a wall letter box of the familiar blue and gold hue.
The letter box crashed to the sidewalk. A crowd gathered. Several alert officers of the law gathered. Then the chagrined butcher's boy gathered himself together and began to gather up strewn letters.
Thus was Marie's 26-year-old note discovered, along with half a dozen others posted in 1904 and 1905 and several hundred of the current day. One of the "relics" was from a merchant of the neighborhood to a wine dealer, an order for several bottles of "red" and "white." Still another, from a young man on leave from the army to his grandmother complained of the quality of cigarettes issued to the soldiers.
Postal authorities at the branch office in the rue d'Ulm are going through the records in the hope of discovering which of the several carriers who must have been on duty on that heat during the years 1904 and 1905 had the shortest arm.
And postal authorities at the Ministry of Posts, Telephones and Telegraphs are reviving the clamor for modern boxes, with glass fronts.

POET'S CORNER

A PINE TREE
A handful of moss from the wood-side,
Dappled with gold and brown,
I borrowed to gladden my chamber
In the heart of the dusty town,
And here in the flickering shadow
Traced by my window-vine,
It nurses to life and freshness
The germ of a giant pine.
I turn from the cool-bosomed hills
Dewy the whole day through;
From the flaunting torches of tulips,
Flame-like in form and hue;
From the gorgeous geraniums
glory—
From the trellis where roses twine,
To welcome this sturdy stranger—
This poor little exiled pine.
Out of this feeble seedling
What wonders the years may bring?
Its stem may defy the tempest,
Its limbs in the whirlwind sing;
For age, which to men comes laden
With weakness and sure decline,
Will add only strength and beauty
And growth to this tiny pine.

Hark! Is it an airy fancy?
The roar of its storm-wrung limbs—
Then the sigh of the tender tassels
To the twilight's zephyr-hymns;
The rain on its thick, soft greenness
When the spring skies weep and shine—
Oh, many and mighty the voices
Haunting this tiny pine.
Shops and the jar of machinery;
Mills, and the shudder of wheels;
Wharves, and the bustle of commerce
Ships, and the rushing of keels;
Towns, and the hurry of living,
The murmur which none may define—
I see and hear as I listen
Watching this tiny pine.
I will take it again to the wood-side,
That, safe with its kindred there,
Its evergreen branches may broaden
Yearly more strong and fair;
And long after weeds and brambles
Grow over this head of mine,
The wild birds will build and warble
In the boughs of my grateful pine.

Late Corn Helped Slightly By Rains

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 20—(UP)—General showers which fell during the week ending yesterday helped late corn and enabled a start in some fall plowing, according to the weekly synopsis of weather and crop conditions in Illinois by the United States Weather Bureau here today.
"Further deterioration of corn was

Here's How to Conduct an Office on Blistering Days

Dictating machines, typewriters and special telephones were installed on the edge of his artificial pool and "business as usual," interspersed with swims and cooling drinks, was the order of the day.

stopped over most sections by a return to moderate temperature and by two periods of rather general showers," the report stated. "Some southwestern counties and spotted areas elsewhere received only light amounts of precipitation; though good amounts were received at many points, including the southeast where it has been very dry, nevertheless, the rains were insufficient to completely break the drought generally. Reports indicate late corn has been helped, but that appreciable improvement of early is doubtful. Pastures remain of little feed value. Fall plowing has begun where there is sufficient moisture. Some clover and soybeans are being cut."

WINE AND BEER PLANK ADOPTED BY DEMOCRATS

Lewis To Seek the Senate Seat On Dripping Wet Platform

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21—(AP)—James Hamilton Lewis, the Democratic candidate for the Senate, will seek election on a platform favoring repeal of all prohibition legislation.

The Democratic state convention adopted yesterday without a dissenting vote, an anti-dry plank calling for repeal of the eighteenth amendment and immediate repeal of the Volstead act, the Jones law and the Illinois search and seizure act.

"And we shall," the platform read, "under no circumstances favor any legislation in Illinois that will restore the open saloon."

Pending repeal of the eighteenth amendment, the platform calls for immediate repeal of the Volstead act and the substitution of an act permitting the manufacture, sale and transportation of light wines and beer.

The unexpected unanimity on the prohibition plank followed former Senator Lewis' scathing attack of liquor laws. The "dripping wet" Cook county (Chicago) delegates had expected opposition as a majority of the resolutions committee were from the downstate districts heretofore considered dry.

Hits Expenditures
For the first time, a woman presided as permanent chairman of the convention. She was Sarah Bond Hanley, of Moline.

The Democrats also criticized primary expenditures of the Republican Senatorial nominee, Ruth Hanna McCormick.

"The Republican party's nominee," the platform read, "has confessed before a special investigating committee that she expended over $250,000 in the primary alone and that others spent an additional $67,000 for her, or a total of over $317,000."

Declaring that "this debauchery by excessive wealth excludes men and women of moderate means from participation in elections," the platform said precedent in Newberry, Vane and Smith cases "indicates the Republican nominee from Illinois would not be seated even if elected."

The platform also denounced the Republican party "for saddling additional burdens on the farmers of America by the vicious tariff measure passed at a session primarily called for relief of the farmer."

The prohibition question promises to be a perturbing issue in the Republican state convention here tomorrow.

Mrs. McCormick, always considered a dry, has steadfastly refused to discuss the wet-dry question until after the convention.

Chicagoans Are Wet
The Cook county delegation, however, under the leadership of Bernard W. Snow, County Chairman, said they would seek an anti-prohibition plank. The Cook county Republican committee sponsored petitions for a prohibition referendum in the November election.

Others of the 21 planks in the Democratic platform favored reappointment, Illinois waterway development, consolidation of taxing bodies, return of a larger portion of gasoline tax to cities and counties, women on juries, general tax relief and flood control.

Concerning taxation, the platform said: "Mounting taxation in Illinois has become an intolerable burden to the taxpayers. Successive Republican administrations in this state have repeatedly promised relief, but have performed only by adding to the number of irresponsible boards and commissions, to be supported by public funds, and so add still more to the tax burden."

"The present Republican Governor of Illinois, when a candidate for nomination, repeatedly denounced the preceding Republican state administration as the most extravagant in the history of the state. And yet, under his administration, the tax burden has reached a height that amounts to practical confiscation."

"In face of this situation, the present Republican state administration has devised no means of remedying existing conditions."

The people of the United States are rapidly becoming mosquito conscious. When every community awakes to the importance of a campaign to eliminate these pestiferous and disease-bearing insects, then shall much sickness and untimely death be prevented, and people in cities and country alike enjoy the great out-doors to the fullest extent.

Unfortunately, there are many communities where the people are not yet aware that the mosquito annoyance is preventable; that it is no longer necessary for us to allow these hungry insects to feed on us. Yet Gorgas demonstrated in Havana and Panama that this could be the case.

In both areas did General Gorgas wipe out yellow fever by destroying the yellow fever mosquito. If mosquito control can be accomplished in sections where they breed every day in the year, how much simpler should the problem be for us, where the mosquito breeding season is so much shorter!

The method used to conquer these pests in the tropics has come to be known as "The Gorgas Plan," and it is being used successfully in many sections of the country where the importance of control work is being realized.

The basic principle is to eliminate the breeding places, for mosquitoes breed only in stagnant water by draining off the water or filling the depressions; it is essentially an engineering process and oil or other larvicides are used as substitutes only where drainage is not feasible.

The important thing to remember is that the effects of a program of mosquito control can only be permanent and successful when mosquito-proof conditions are maintained. After the initial piece of work is accomplished the project cannot be forgotten and disregarded. There is always follow-up work to be done, and if it is not done mosquitoes reappear and the money and time expended in the initial work are wasted.

The mosquito engineers of the Gorgas Memorial Institute have successfully developed a "mosquito conscience" in the many districts they have served. In these communities we find the happy golfers, the unmolested picnic parties and successful, well-attended concerts and outdoor-cut entertainments. Here also we find health conditions above the average.

When all people everywhere understand the menace of mosquitoes both from the standpoint of health and comfort, and the simplicity and small cost of the measures necessary

FIFTY-NINE MEN RULE THE NATION SAYS JAS. GERARD

Lists Men Whose Influence He Thinks Controls Destinies Of U. S.

New York, Aug. 21—(AP)—In the opinion of James W. Gerard, formerly Ambassador to Germany, 59 men "rule the United States."

Mr. Gerard compiled a list of these men for today's New York Times, which asked him to amplify a sentence in a pamphlet he wrote in endorsing the crusade of Viscount Rothmere and Lord Beaverbrook for British Empire free trade and high protection. In that pamphlet he wrote:

"Give the 40 men who rule the United States ten years for the development of this industrial empire (the British Empire) and no country on earth could approach it in per capita wealth."

The list includes leaders in American finance, industry, this amusement field and journalism, but omits President Hoover and all others holding state and national offices, save Secretary Mellon.

Mr. Gerard explains the actual "power behind the throne" is wielded by men whose wealth and important industrial positions in the nation give them a permanent influence in American life. Statesmen, he said, are usually shorn of most of their power when they retire.

Gerard's List
The list in the order given by Mr. Gerard follows:

John D. Rockefeller, Jr.
Andrew W. Mellon.
J. P. Morgan.

George F. Baker, banker.
John D. Ryan, copper magnate.
Walter C. Teague, President of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Henry Ford.
Frederick E. Weyerhaeuser, lumber magnate.

Myron C. Taylor, Chairman Finance Committee United States Steel Corporation.

James A. Farrell, President United States Steel Corporation.
Charles M. Schwab, Chairman Bethlehem Steel Corporation.

Eugene C. Grace, President Bethlehem Steel Corporation.
H. M. Warner and Adolph Zukor, motion picture magnates.

William H. Crocker, banker.
O. P. and M. J. Sweringen, railroad magnates.

W. W. Atterbury, President Pennsylvania railroad.
Arthur Curtis James, large holder of railroad securities.

Charles Hayden, financier.
Daniel O. Hays, President Utah Copper Company.

Arthur V. Davis, President Aluminum Company of America.
P. M. Gossler, President Columbia Gas and Electric Corporation.

R. C. Holmes, President Texas Corporation, oil producer.
John J. Raskob.

The Du Pont family (seven members).
Edward J. Berwind, financier.

Daniel Willard, President Baltimore & Ohio railroad.
Sosthenes Behn, Chairman International Telephone & Telegraph Corporation.

Walter S. Gifford, President American Telephone & Telegraph Company.
Owen D. Young, Chairman General Electric Company.

Gerard Swope, President General Electric Company.
Thomas W. Lamont, of J. P. Morgan & Company.

Albert H. Wiggin, banker.
Charles E. Mitchell, banker.

Samuel Insull, electric power magnate.
The seven Fisher brothers, motor magnates.

Daniel Guggenheim and William Loeb, mining magnates.
G. W. Hill, President American Tobacco Company.

Adolph S. Ochs, publisher.
William Randolph Hearst, publisher.

Robert R. McCormick and Joseph Medill Patterson, publishers.
Julius Rosenberg, merchant.

Cyrus H. K. Curtis, publisher.
Roy W. Howard, publisher.

No attempt was made by Mr. Gerard to rank his selections according to his opinion of their importance, but he expressed the belief that as a class the bankers exert the greatest influence, because they control the purse strings of the nation.

He declared while all these men are too busy to run for political office, their influence, financial, industrial and semi-political, determines the men who shall go in office.

Secretary Of Dead Millionaire Sues
Chicago, Aug. 21—(AP)—A claim of $96,265 was on file today in Probate Court against the estate of the late Samuel Levitt, millionaire hotel owner, by his former secretary, Miss Nan Kamp, 30, of St. Louis.

When she was about to be married, Miss Kamp said, Levitt induced her to change her mind and continue in charge of his confidential affairs in St. Louis on the promise of taking out a $100,000 life insurance policy for her benefit. When Levitt died last December it was discovered the policy named Miss Kamp as only $3,735. The claim is for the balance of the promised amount.

Levitt's estate went to his widow, Bessie, and three children.

When Jim Dandy Outfoxed Gallant Fox

He was a 100-to-1 shot. The greatest race horses on the continent were pitted against him. But a stout heart and a muddy track combined to win the historic Travers, America's oldest stake, for Shaffee Earl's Jim Dandy. Pictured above is the amazing finish of the famous race at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., with Jim Dandy eight lengths ahead of Gallant Fox, the three-year-old champion of the year. Behind Gallant Fox, out of the camera's range, was Harry Payne Whitney's Whitehorse long considered Gallant Fox's deadliest rival for American turf honors.

'THE HAIG' SHOWS HE'S NOT READY FOR RETIREMENT

Veteran Proves Class In Play At Western Open Tournament

Orion, Mich., Aug. 21—(AP)—"The Haig" isn't through yet.

Suddenly reversing the form that threatened to topple him once and for all from his pedestal as one of golf's greatest stylists, Walter Haig once more stood out today as a one big threat in one of the favorite tournaments of his long career, the western open championship.

A record-breaking 67, five under par, in the 18 hole qualifying round over the championship Indian Wood Country Club course yesterday and a 66 in the practice test the day before, was Haig's signal of his promised comeback. The rounds shattered the course record.

Yesterday's was one of the best rounds he has ever scored and that included the many he tallied in the triumphant seasons that have been his.

Withal, Haig faced spirited competition and a big fight from a brilliant field as the big push-off in the 72 hole medal drive for the championship opened today. Chief among his rivals were Tommy Armour, the defending champion from Detroit.

Horton Smith, and "Wild Bill" Mehlhorn, who did not have to qualify yesterday because of their low scores last year's championship. Then there was Johnny Farrell, the former national open champion from New York, who finished one shot behind Haig in yesterday's 18 hole qualifying test with a brilliant 68; Al Watros, Detroit pro, who scored a 71 and the two Espinosa brothers, Al and Abe, from Chicago, both good campaigners in medal play.

So roomy was the qualifying space yesterday that 121 made the grade for the championship tussle with 84's or better, including Charles "Chick" Evans, Chicago, former titleholder, who had a 74. Thirty-two automatically qualified because of last year's low scores.

Eighteen holes will be played today and tomorrow, while on Saturday, the low 84's and ties will battle for Armour's crown over the 36 hole route.

Smith Predicts Democratic Win
New York, Aug. 21—(UP)—Alfred E. Smith predicts that the Democratic party "will soon be in national control, and will make this a happy as well as a prosperous nation."

The former presidential candidate, in a statement that is believed to round the keynote for the coming state and national campaigns, is confident his party will overthrow the Republicans. The statement, read before the Joel Parker Association yesterday at West Orange, N. J., is Smith's most important utterance on national affairs in months.

That the prosperity issue will be used against the Republican party in the coming congressional contests and in the presidential campaign of 1932, just as it was against the Democrats in 1928, was indicated by the tenor of the Democratic leader's remarks.

Kankakee Men Are Taken In Chicago
Chicago, Aug. 21—(AP)—Cecil Emery, 26, and Harry Benjamin, 19, both of Kankakee and wanted there in connection with several hold-ups, were arrested here and today have been taken home in custody of Kankakee police.

Police said the men confessed to six hold-ups in Kankakee and Joliet, among them being one in which a Kankakee hermit was badly beaten. They said they threw their guns away in Coles City.

Race Drivers DEMAND the TIRES WE SELL!

THE Indianapolis 500 Mile Endurance Race is famous as an endurance test and battle of tires for no driver can win this race who has tire trouble. He races over a hot brick track at a speed of 100 or more miles per hour. For eleven consecutive years Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires have been on the winning cars.

FOR years the winner of the hazardous race of Pike's Peak climb — where a slip meant death — used Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires.

1. THESE drivers do not simply choose Firestone Tires. They demand them. They know by experience that this tire never fails. It never fails because it is built not to fail by the special Firestone processes of tire building.

(a) Every fibre of cotton thread going into the making of the cord fabric, which is the foundation of the tire, is coated and cushioned in rubber by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process.

(b) Under the tread is the Firestone patented Gum-Dipped Double Cord Breaker—which means not only two extra plies where most needed, but also sets the Firestone Tire apart as an all cord tire, while others are woven fabric and cord.

(c) Firestone Super High Speed Tires now have 32% more rubber in the tread, giving deeper grooves that will give you over 50% more non-skid wear before the tire is smooth.

2. THESE are not just features. They are basic differences in tire building proved by service on every kind of road and track.

3. YOU may never intend to race. You may never intend even to speed. You may never climb Pike's Peak. But, every day—whether you know it or not—your life depends upon your tires.

4. WE HAVE these Super High Speed Gum-Dipped Balloons for sale today. They are the same tires that the racing drivers demand—the premier tires of the world. Their first cost is low. Their cost per mile of service makes them cheaper today than even cheap tires. They are inexpensive, not only because the price of rubber is low, but because we have joined with Firestone to bring into the sale of tires the same degree of efficiency which goes into their manufacture. The benefit of all this is in the price to you.

5. DRIVE IN TODAY. We will examine your tires and make you an allowance for your unused mileage. We can equip your car with new Firestone Super High Speed Tires at a much lower cost than you ever expected. They will give you unequalled service and satisfaction.

32% More Tread Rubber—Deeper Grooves. Patented Double Cord Breaker. Patented Gum-Dipped Cords.
